

The Lounge

Tuesday

Planning a networking event, celebrating with a colleague, or simply toasting a good week? Our private lounge could be the ideal space for you. With lively and capable staff and a number of set-ups, the space can be made your own. With large windows and a relaxed setting, the room feels miles away from the bustle below. This package is a great introduction to what we offer here at Fox in a private space, designed to fit your specific needs.

Upon arrival guests will be served Champagne followed by a number of our house platters and a selection of our fine wines. The wine list can be tailored to the preferences of the host, as can the style of platters served.
